

NEW PRODUCT

SUGGESTED L-CODE: L4361

PROGLIDE CAM

OPTEC Proglide CAM (Controlled Ankle Motion) walkers are designed to prevent or limit ankle and foot movement after a serious sprain, injury, surgery or to stabilize the foot or ankle fractures. The revolutionary semi-rigid construction offers maximum support and comfort.

Features:

- Universal Design for Right or Left Foot
- Inflatable bladder provides custom compression to the foot and ankle, increasing stability and decreasing swelling
- Comfortable foam liner wicks away moisture and provides
- Easy donning and doffing
- Steam lined, Lightweight construction
- Rocker sole promotes natural gait
- Shock absorbing materials reduce impact while walking
- Toe Guard Protection
- Open-frame provides ventilation, skid resistant tread with greater traction and resilient

Available Designs: Standard • Short • Pediatric

Manufacturing Specialist

888-982-8181 • www.optecusa.com